15 Act as if this Act had commenced on the 30th day of June, 1966.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, the offences specified in sub-section (1) of section 6 of that Act are triable by special Judges only. In Major E. G. Barsay v. State of Bombay (AIR 1961 S. C. 1762), it has been held by the Supreme Court that in view of the language of section 7 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, the special Judge has exclusive jurisdiction to try any such offence and the mere fact that any such offence might also be an offence under the Army Act would not be of any relevance.

2. The military authorities have been, however, proceeding on the assumption that the jurisdiction in respect of these offences committed by military personnel is concurrently exercisable by the special Judge and courts-martial and accordingly a number of cases have been tried by courts-martial and other military authorities and quite a good number is pending before them.

3. It was therefore considered necessary and expedient to amend the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, so as to insert a new section therein (with retrospective effect from the commencement of the Act) to save the jurisdiction exercisable by a court-martial or other authority under the military, naval or air force laws and to validate the trials held, proceedings taken and sentences passed by courts-martial and other competent authorities under these laws and for this purpose, the Criminal Law Amendment (Amendment) Bill, 1965, was introduced in the Lok Sabha on the 3rd December, 1965. As the Bill could not be passed during the Budget Session of Parliament, it was considered that the trials pending before courts-martial and other competent military authorities should be allowed to proceed without any further delay in fairness to the affected service personnel, and it accordingly became necessary to have the provisions proposed in the Bill promulgated in the form of an Ordinance, namely, the Criminal Law Amendment (Amendment) Ordinance, 1966 (7 of 1966), promulgated by the President on the 30th June, 1966. While promulgating the Ordinance, opportunity was taken to incorporate therein a suitable saving provision with respect to certain cases pending, immediately before the commencement of the Ordinance, before the special Judges.

4. The Present Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Jayanti Shipping Company, Ltd., was a new venture started in 1961. The Shipping Development Fund Committee, a statutory body, had committed itself to advance a loan of up to Rs. 20·25 crores over a period of years and out of this about Rs. 6·60 crores were already advanced by 7th June, 1966.

For some time past complaints had been made, both in the Parliament and outside, against the management of this company alleging mismanagement, misuse of company's funds, leakage of foreign exchange, non-deposit of Provident Fund and income-tax deductions, non-payment of bills for supplies and services, non-payment of salaries and family allotments, non-payment of premia for insurance of ships and so on. An Enquiry Committee was appointed to go into these complaints but they could not make much headway due to the non-cooperation of the company.

Meanwhile, the pressure of the creditors on the company became so great that it was on the verge of being dragged to insolvency proceedings. Accordingly, to pay off its creditors the company applied to Government for permission to sell four of its ships—two to three abroad and one or two in India. Government could not, however, agree to this because firstly this would result in depletion of the Indian fleet and secondly even after the sale of these 4 ships the company would still be short by about Rs. 1·5 crores to meet its liabilities upto 31-3-1967. Since at the same time it was necessary to do something effective to safeguard the interests of the Shipping Development Fund Committee, to maintain the reputation of the national shipping industry in world shipping and to take possession of the books of account, etc., with a view to examining how the affairs of the company have been conducted, Government decided to take over the management of the company for a limited period.

As Parliament was not in session, an Ordinance called the Jayanti Shipping Company (Taking Over of Management) Ordinance, 1966, was promulgated by the President on the 10th June, 1966.

The Bill seeks to replace the Jayanti Shipping Company (Taking Over of Management) Ordinance, 1966.

NEW DELHI;
The 19th July, 1966.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. 36-MD(78)/66, dated the 1st August, 1966 from Shri C. M. Poonacha, Minister of State in the Ministry of Transport and Aviation to the Secretary, Lok Sabha].

The President having been informed of the subject matter of the Bill to provide for the taking over of the management of the undertaking of the Jayanti Shipping Company for a limited period in order to secure the appropriate management of the same, recommends under article 117(3) of the Constitution of India, the consideration of the said Bill in the Lok Sabha.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill contemplates the appointment of a Board of Control which shall alone be entitled to exercise all the powers of the board of directors of the Jayanti Shipping Company. The Bill also contemplates the appointment by the Board of Control of managing agents for the management of the undertaking of the company and further provides that the managing agent shall receive such remuneration as may be determined by the Board of Control with the previous approval of the Central Government.

2. Clause 17 of the Bill, however, provides that all salaries, allowances and other remunerations paid to the Chairman and other members of the Board of Control, the managing agent or any other person who may be appointed or employed in connection with the affairs of the management of the company and all other expenses duly incurred in connection with such management shall be paid out of the funds of the company. Therefore, whatever expenses are initially incurred from the Consolidated Fund of India to meet the salaries, allowances and other remunerations of the Chairman and other members of the Board of Control or of the managing agent shall be ultimately recouped from the funds of the Jayanti Shipping Company and as such no net expenditure is likely to be incurred from the Consolidated Fund of India.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 19 authorises the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Bill. Clause 3(4) of the Bill contemplates the making of rules providing for the term of office of, the procedure to be followed in the discharge of their functions by, and the manner of filling vacancies among, the members of the Board of Control. These are matters of detail and as such the delegation of the legislative power is of a normal character.

S. L. SHAKDHER,
Secretary.
